“Best of COPSWEST” Best Badge Design Contest

Many departments have traded in their generic badge for a design that reflects their department and their community. Although they are all handsome, some are real works of art. Send us a 5" x 7" or 8" x 10" color photograph of your new badge or special commemorative badge with an explanation of what it means to your department and how and why you developed it. Your agency may win the coveted "Best Badge Design" award to be presented on Monday, November 15, 2010, at the CPOA Leadership Training Day at the DoubleTree Hotel in Ontario, California; this is the day prior to COPSWEST. All entries must be received by July 30, 2010, to be eligible to participate. All departments in the western United States are eligible.

Best Cruiser Vehicle Design Contest

Most of our vehicles are black and white; many have awesome graphics. But the merit of a police car is in the equipment and the placement of that equipment. We are interested in the whole car. Someone in your agency has spent a great deal of time and money making it something your officers can rely on. Tell us the details and decision-making processes you used in designing your cruiser. Send us three color photographs of the inside and outside of your department cruiser. This award will be presented on Monday, November 15, 2010, at the CPOA Leadership Training Day at the DoubeTree Hotel in Ontario, California; this is the day prior to COPSWEST. All entries must be received by July 30, 2010, to be eligible to participate. All departments in the western United States are eligible.

Cold - Case Solved

Solving a cold case is cause for celebration! There's nothing quite like the look on the face of a crook who unexpectedly finds that he didn't get away with the crime after all. Do you know of a long-cold case that now has a positive outcome? Share the details of the case by sending a narrative describing the case history and its eventual resolution. Photographs are optional. This award will be presented on Monday, November 15, 2010, at the CPOA Leadership Training Day at the DoubeTree Hotel in Ontario, California; this is the day prior to COPSWEST.
